What is the Mizzou MedPrep Program?
The Mizzou MedPrep program, established in 2011, is designed to assist individuals in exploring health-care careers and assist those interested in applying to medical school with the application process. Although all applicants are welcomed, the workshops are developed for our value added groups which include: underrepresented in medicine (URM), socio-economically (SES) disadvantaged, those from rural areas, and non-traditional students. The workshops do not have prerequisites and you can opt to participate in one or multiple workshops. Scholarships are available based on need.
