FEATURED SPEAKERS

JAY ANGOFF
Senior Advisor, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and Acting Regional Director, Region 7

Jay Angoff is a Senior Advisor at HHS and the Acting Regional Director for HHS Region VII in Kansas City, Missouri.

He formerly served as Senior Advisor to the Secretary and as the first director of the Office of Consumer Information and Insurance Oversight at HHS, where he oversaw the implementation of the health insurance provisions of the Affordable Care Act.

Prior to joining HHS, Angoff was a partner at the Washington, D.C., law firm of Mehri & Skalet. He previously served as Insurance Commissioner of Missouri and was the chairman of Missouri’s Commission on Health Insurance Reform. He has also served as deputy insurance commissioner of New Jersey and special assistant to the Governor for health insurance policy; as counsel to the National Insurance Consumer Organization; and as vice president for strategic planning at Quotesmith.com, an internet insurance broker and quotation service. Angoff began his career as an antitrust lawyer with the Federal Trade Commission. He is a graduate of Oberlin College and Vanderbilt Law School.

JOE FLOWER
Healthcare and Technology Futurist

With nearly 30 years of experience, Joe Flower has emerged as the premier observer and thought leader on the deep forces changing health care in the United States and around the world. He has explored the future of health care with an extraordinary variety of stakeholders in the field - professional associations, pharmaceutical companies, device manufacturers, health plans, physician groups, hospitals, and both government and international agencies.

Flower is the author of hundreds of articles and author or co-author of a number of books. He is a columnist with the American Hospital Association’s Hospitals and Health Networks Online, as well as for Physician Executive, the journal of the American College of Physician Executives. In March 2012, Flower released his highly anticipated new book, Healthcare Beyond Reform: Doing it Right for Half the Cost, which offers a practical roadmap for healthcare.

Flower was a founding member of the International Health Futures Network, and is a member of the faculty of the American Hospital Association’s Health Forum.
